Dear Folks

You will gather from last month's notice that Annie and I are moving North; and so, this is my farewell letter.

Leaving so soon was not our original intention, and it has been a joy, getting to know so many of you; but after meeting with Bishop Steven of Oxford, we agreed, with sadness, to accept his support in finding another post in which to continue and develop our ministry.

Eventually, our prayers were answered with a benefice in West Yorkshire.

The Vicarage and the largest church are in the village of Ripponden, with three other churches in surrounding villages, and a total population approaching 8,000.

There are farms and shops and amenities, and all sorts of festivals and activities that involve the local communities; and, as you would expect in Yorkshire, the people are warm and down-to-earth. We will also be much nearer to our new, first grandchild.

There had been some confusion about what has been happening in the last few months; but moving to a new parish is somewhat more involved than a regular job or house move.

So, I have been looking after a group of churches in the Wendover Deanery, as we make the numerous arrangements for our leaving and arriving.

We will leave with very fond memories of the warm welcome and support that we have received across the Valley; and we are sorry not to have been able to be with you for a number of recent celebrations and commemorations.

However, throughout this time, a few familiar friends have been taking services and pastoral offices: my sincere thanks especially to Carol, Mieke and Peter; and to Penny and others for holding things together.

The important thing now is for us all to look ahead.

With honest reflection and patient faith, the Valley churches will find the love, the joy and the peace that God intends.

You will remain in our thoughts and prayers.

Thanks and best wishes,

Stephen

GROUP NOTES AND NEWS

"Be the Light"

Many of you have seen the Nature Table that is my kitchen (spreading throughout the Rectory to be fair...), and know my enthusiasm for all the beauty of life. You also know that I don't hide from reality and, like Stephen, value openness, honesty and truth.

My advice to my daughters, as young adults in an uncertain world, full of absurdities, has been, "Be the light": do what you can to make your part of the world a better place.

I have learned much over the last four years, but learning to look at people through God's eyes has given me a deeper, unconditional love for them, beyond my understanding, and has lifted me.

So, feeling powerless and perhaps confused, we can try to amplify that small voice of love within us and together make a better soundtrack for the Valley and beyond.

Sounds trite, but after all my sixty-one years (and most of them spent within the Church of England) I have found that love and honesty actually can break down the barriers that fear and lack of trust have built up.

Speaking of learning new things, my ukulele lessons with two groups in Marlow have been a joy. One teacher, who is fond of northern ballads, had us play 'The Last Farewell' and a line in the chorus is my message to all our lovely friends in the Valley:

"For you are beautiful and I have loved you dearly, more dearly than the spoken word can tell."

Annie x

At Home

Stephen and Annie would love you to come to the Rectory from 3pm on the afternoon of Wednesday the 11th of March, to have a chat and say goodbye.

With best wishes.

Footprints: A service of remembrance for the loss of a child

On Friday 13th March 2020 at 7.30pm, we will be holding our annual Footprints Service; this year it will take place at Holy Trinity Church, Church Path, Lane End, High Wycombe, HP14 3HD. As in previous years the service will take place the weekend before Mother's Day, a time when the loss of a child can be particularly difficult. It may be a time of year when the pain of losing a child is difficult to bear, whether that loss is recent or many years ago. It may also be a time when remembering is important and a significant part of the pathway through grief.

The Footprints Service is a service for anyone who has lost a child during pregnancy or at any age or stage of life or has been affected by such a loss, whether parent, grandparent, teacher, friend or family member. All are welcome.

Footprints will offer space to remember your child or children and the opportunity to light a candle in their memory if you wish. There will be music, readings and prayers included as part of our time of remembering. Refreshments will be served after the service.

Oasis

For a number of years now we have gathered in St Bartholomew's church, Fingest, on the first Sunday of each month for a service of informal worship called Oasis. Our last one was in November and we will begin a new year of the Oasis service on Sunday the 1st of March. (This one is actually at Frieth). The service begins at 6 p.m.

Oasis is a service of informal worship with time for listening to God's word, time for quiet reflection and prayer. Time to be thankful before God and to sing our praise in uplifting and meditative worship songs and hymns led by the band.

Each month there will be a different theme for our worship. We hope that in the periods of silence we might be able slow down and listen to the still

Annette Jackson 10/10/1928 – 20/12/2019

My family and I wish to thank you sincerely for your kindness in writing and/or attending Annette's Service at Hambleden on 15th January. Clearly I am not going to be able to acknowledge all your letters of condolence individually.

Paul Bibby, who was Rector at the time Annette set out to train as a Reader, asked me if I knew what Annette was getting involved in, to which I replied that if this was her wish "so be it". Annette never had any regrets and thoroughly enjoyed it.

It is said that no one is irreplaceable, however, there is a void at home and I believe you will miss Annette in the Valley, too. Thank you for your sympathy.

Peter Jackson and Family

Annette

On Sunday 19th January it was my turn to preach at St. James's. Our theme was "Living God's love to others". This formed part of my talk.

On the previous Wednesday I attended the Thanksgiving service in a packed Hambleden Church for the life of a lady who was a great example of showing the love of God in her life and handing on that love to everyone she met.

Annette Jackson lived to be 91 and when I first moved to Fingest in 1987 she was beginning to study to become a Reader as LLMs were known then.

The Hambleden Valley has 6 churches and it has grown 3 LLMs, all from Fingest Church. Through the example, love and encouragement of Annette first my friend, Sue Brice, and then I were called and eventually licensed as LLMs. Gordon Slinn was posted here by the RAF while he was training as an LLM and Annette also acted as his mentor.

Through her life and the way she lived and loved and cared for people she brought joy to many, brought them closer to God and through her example and encouragement brought two of us into ministry.

That is a wonderful example of living God's love to others.

As I came to the end of my sermon I realised she is still doing it.

Hambleden Valley Garden Club

On 1st February members had a surprise opportunity to visit John and Janet Gill's garden at Little Kimble to see their amazing collection of over 100 varieties of snowdrops. The snowdrops looked beautiful planted in clumps throughout the garden, amongst many other interesting plants, and it was a joy to be able to observe all their different forms and markings. As well as a lot of interesting information about the snowdrops, John and Janet also offered tea and coffee and home-made cheese scones.

At the February meeting, Brian Fisher gave a lively presentation of a delightful wide selection of bulbs for the garden and a few for the conservatory, including many unusual and rare varieties. His photos were excellent and he had lots of helpful horticultural advice. It was a most enjoyable, informative and entertaining evening.

In March, Rachel Siegfried from Green and Gorgeous will talk about growing cut flowers and will give some history and background to the flower farm and floral design studio.

New members are most welcome, please phone Celia Warren, 01491 638691, for more information.

Hambleton WI February 2020

Our meeting opened with details about this month's clubs and activities, highlighting the 'Snowdrop Walk' on Wednesday 19th February. Non-walkers were welcome to join us for lunch at the Five Horsehoes, Maidensgrove. The book chosen for this month's Book Club was 'The Silence of the Girls', Pat Barker.

We have a number of trips planned this year including the summer party at Waddesdon to celebrate '100 years of BFWI'. Louise Andrews gave details of a trip to Greatmoor near Aylesbury which produces 'Energy from Waste'. Helen Grubb and Louise have more trips planned for the rest of the year....details to follow!

Our speaker this month was Warren Ford who spoke to us about 'Tea, our national beverage'. Warren is an experienced tea taster and blender who originally trained with Tetley and latterly set up the Yorkshire Tea blends for Taylors of Harrogate. He took us on a journey from leaf to cup with photographs showing his trips to tea estates in Sri Lanka, India and Kenya. Warren certainly whetted our appetites for the tea and cake which followed! These were kindly provided and served by Shelagh Green, Christine Hatfield and Niki Mains.

If you are interested in joining us as a guest at one of our meetings or on one of our walks, please contact either Jan Connelly (01628 486344) or Sarah Williams (07817 120339). We meet on the second Thursday of each month at 7.30pm in Hambleton Village Hall.

Hambleton's first 'pop up' Cinema

Hambleton's first 'pop up' cinema was a huge success thanks to the incredible work of Fiona Brooks and all those involved in organising the event. A huge illuminated external sign advertising the feature film welcomed visitors to The Village Hall and a taste of the quality of the event.

A complimentary drink on arrival and a chance to catch up with friends in a convivial atmosphere before the film got the evening off to a fine start. Delicious snacks and drinks to sustain us through the film were available to purchase in the 'Foyer' at very reasonable prices

The evening was introduced by Dick Fletcher, who thanked all those whose hard work had made the evening possible with the 'The Children Act' starring Emma Thompson being a well chosen film for the inaugural event. The quality of the screen image and the sound were both exceptional and soft seating ensured a comfortable viewing experience.

The whole evening made for a very pleasant experience and we look forward to the next

Easter lilies

A lovely and long standing tradition at Hambleden parish church has been for parishioners (churchgoers and non-churchgoers) to donate lilies in remembrance of those who have been especially loved and who have departed this life. It makes a stunning display for Easter services and for the many visitors who come into church in the weeks following Easter Day.

You can add your name to the list in the church porch on or before Monday 6th April noting how many lilies you want at £3.50 each.

Elspeth Armstrong will place an order with a florist who supplies long stem lilies. They will be timed to open on Easter eve and will be set out in the church by the flower arrangers.

You can instruct Elspeth on 01491 571 324 or elspetharmstrong@outlook.com She will be happy to receive your cash or a cheque made payable to Elspeth Armstrong at Pheasants Coombe House, Hambleden RG9 6SD

FINGEST

Fingest Past

Fingest Farmers in the 1800s (1) – William Nash, born in 1823, was farming in Fingest from the middle of the 1800s into the beginning of the 20th Century. His farm of 280 acres, situated in Chequers Lane, Fingest, was known at this time as Fingest Farm. In the late 1890s to early 1900s it became known as Fingest Manor Farm. H. Cripps Q.C. and his son had purchased Parmoor in 1873 and began buying land and properties in Fingest and Skirmett to form part of the Parmoor Estate. In 1894 they established a farm of 63 acres together with a new farmhouse in Fingest next to Ivy Cottage and the Chequers Inn. The new farm

TURVILLE

The History of Cliveden Conservation and its link to Turville Village.

Cliveden Conservation was founded in 1982 by former Turville village resident Trevor Proudfoot who sadly died in September 2019. The workshop was first set up to conserve the National Trust's growing statuary collections across the country, with Trevor as Advisor to the Trust for Stone and Plaster Conservation – a position he held until his death. In 1990 the company moved away from the sole employ of the National Trust, and has since offered an impressive range of remedial and preventative conservation services to commercial and private clients as well as larger heritage organisations.

Agoliath in the conservation world, Trevor was involved with important conservation projects on an international scale including at Aphrodisias—one of the oldest and most sacred sites in Turkey. Closer to home he led many prestigious projects working with the National Trust, Historic England, Historic Royal Palaces and Oxford University to survey and conserve external and internal architectural features, historic objects, monuments and statuary.

In addition to repairs to St Mary's Church in Turville and other local buildings, Cliveden Conservation recently completed works to clean and repair a highly decorative altarpiece of gilded marble, designed by the novelist and poet Thomas Hardy at All Saints, Windsor. The discovery, cleaning and restoration of the Thomas Hardy Altarpiece has transformed the whole building: it is once again a focal feature of this beautiful church.

St Mary's Church in the village of Datchet was another special project. As well as restoring the external stonework of the spire, Cliveden Conservation was asked to replace two worn figurative carvings around the windows. Jem Hobbs, one of Cliveden Conservation's skilled stone carvers, sculpted the head of the late Ron Piggott, who helped raise funds for the conservation work.

Many of the projects which Cliveden Conservation has undertaken over the past 30 years have won awards. In his new role as Managing Director, Lewis Proudfoot, Trevor's son who grew up in Turville, is passionate about continuing with these successes and maintaining his father's legacy as one of the country's leading experts for the conservation of stone, terracotta, plaster, wall paintings and the decorative arts.
