Group Letter

I have joked previously about Pheasants Hill being a suburb of Hambleden, as if Hambleden were some big city. Well, for all of July, Hambleden will have its own bypass – like all our biggest cities!

July will see plenty of filming activity in Hambleden – and there is another film crew in Lower Fawley, too – making July a month of inconvenience to many of the local residents. Added to that we have the Henley Regatta, the Festival, and summer weddings – although thankfully, and unusually, none in July. It is a time you might resent all the visitors that come this way: too many people, too much traffic. Perhaps you will take your holiday in July. We all need holidays; we were designed to work only six days out of seven and sabbaticals draw their very name from the Jewish Sabaoth. We need to restore our energy, wind down properly, perhaps visit distant lands or catch up with distant relations.

Going away is a good solution to the inconvenience of all the activity of July. But another solution is to re-frame the disruption. We need to count our blessings for all we have here, the beautiful landscape, the friendly communities, the attractions of the Thames. We need creativity and good films can lift us in spirit, especially when filmed in fabulous countryside.

Let us not forget the conflict that rages in parts of the world, the hardship and poverty that many have to live with. We should pray for, and support practically, those who suffer thus. But for us, in our Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, let us thank God for all we have, and not grumble about the traffic.

GROUP NOTES

Wild Pottery at Turville Studios, 9th June 2024

Reverend Sue did an introduction when we all said a prayer, looked at the countryside and sang a song. Then Jenny told us how she became a potter and gave us all some clay. She told us whatever we did was right. People made many weird and wonderful creations. I saw a picture of a snail, a mushroom, pots with and without lids, imprints of flowers and leaves, a snake and a rose. We went into the studios and talked to the artists and we saw ponies and goats. We learnt how to use the potters' wheels and then we sang another song and had cake.

Thank you to all the Wild Church team and the Turville Artists for a lovely afternoon.

Community Matters

Hello again from Community Matters operating through Holy Trinity Church, Lane End. It is lovely to have this opportunity to pass on to you some of the stories involving the families we support in the village, because it is only through your generosity that we are able to continue to help those whose lives are pretty much a constant struggle. It is worth just remembering also that all of our families are referred by professionals such as the Housing Association, Health Visitors, the local school and Social Workers.

Recently we were given a quantity of bedding, duvets and mattress covers, and we were able to distribute these to several families. We have paid the lunch fees for a young boy attending nursery. He was not eligible for free lunches but in September he will have reached the age when he will qualify for them. A teenage boy is undergoing some fairly tough chemotherapy and has lost his appetite but he suddenly announced that he craved a pizza with a few friends at his house so we ordered a pizza delivery – he was delighted!

Once again thank you for your kindness and generosity it is such a blessing to us.

British Normandy Memorial at Ver-sur-Mer

On a recent trip to Normandy, I was able to visit the British Normandy Memorial at Ver-sur-Mer the day after King Charles, Queen Camilla and other dignitaries had paid their respects and laid wreaths. It is such a wonderful and beautifully cared for memorial to all those who lost their lives during and after the D-Day landings, but so sad and emotional for everyone who visits when you see the names of all those men and women who were so young and gave their lives for our future.

I particularly wanted to see the new 1,475 silhouette figures to honour the men and women who died on the 6th June 1944 created by the charity Standing With Giants and titled: 'For Your Tomorrow: The People's Tribute'. These silhouette figures had crafted poppies added to the bases of their plinths, many made by WI members.

It was amazing and very emotional for me seeing the wonderful memorial and I really recommend a visit if you are ever in that part of France.

The red of rose, the green of oak

A car is waiting for her now outside.

The time has come, she knows, when she should go.

She wants to please them, let them be her guide, not fuss or make a scene or let them know her doubts, how much she needs to shield her pride.

She looks out on the garden he has made: the sunflowers turning gently to the sun, their crown of seeds aglow as if inlaid with gold, as if in thanks for all he'd done to give them life and light above the shade.

She sees him standing there beside the pear he had planted when they first arrived, his hair still dark, his smile without a care, no hint of all the pain that had deprived him of his strength, his desperate need for air.

How can she leave where they have been so long – this garden where their love at first awoke, a love that grew with planting, deep and strong, the curving red of rose, the green of oak, this garden where they'll always both belong?

No, she cannot leave what he has grown, Leave what he loved to strangers or decay. He needs her here, not far away alone, to carry on, resist their words, and stay to sow again the seeds that he has sown.

Protecting your wealth and loved ones

- Everyone should have a Will, but 2 out of 3 people have not yet made one, and those that have may not have the correct Will in place.
- If you own a business or a share of a business, your spouse/partner and children may not necessarily inherit your share.
- An estimated 70,000 people per year have to sell their homes to pay for care.
- Effective planning can also protect the inheritance of future generations from divorce or separation settlements.
- By setting up lasting powers of attorney you can rest assured that your finances and personal welfare are in safe hands.

Embracing the Art of Life: My Journey and Inspiration for Starting Henley Academy of Art

As we journey through life, we often discover passions that transform our paths in unexpected and fulfilling ways. My name is Lisa Paddon, and I am delighted to share my story with you.

Twelve years ago, I attended a weekend oil painting workshop for beginners in Sonning Common, South Oxfordshire. This simple course ignited a passion that forever changed my life. Enthralled by the process of painting, I began practising diligently at home, eager to improve my skills.

Seeking inspiration, I visited the National Portrait Gallery, where the luminous portraits of the great masters left me in awe. I yearned to understand their techniques, materials, and processes. Realizing my paintings lacked the depth and radiant light of these masterpieces, I decided to bridge the gap between my aspirations and abilities by learning directly from the masters of old.

Determined to pursue this dream, I made significant sacrifices. I gave up my job, took on lodgers, and worked as a film and TV extra to support myself financially. Despite the challenges of being a single mother, my passion fuelled my determination. I attended specialized workshops at the Prince's School of Traditional Arts and Atelier Schools in London. I flew to Florence to stand before the great masterpieces I had admired in textbooks.

As my skills improved, I began selling my paintings at art fairs and in magazines such as World of Interiors. When I reached a certain level of experience, I felt a sense of duty to share my knowledge and passion with others. My mission became clear: to inspire future artists through the mastery of classical techniques.

Two years ago, my husband and I moved to Nettlebed after finding a house with a large room I could convert into an art studio. The house is grade two listed, where Kings and Queens once stayed as it was a former coaching inn on the route from London to Oxford.

WILDLIFE

Frieth Natural History Society

This year, FNHS will be holding their annual moth session in a garden close to Frieth on 12th/13th July. Traps will be set on the Friday evening and members are invited to help with counting and identification on the Saturday morning.

Moth traps use a light source to attract flying moths which are caught in the main body of the trap. Moths can then be identified and counted before being safely released. The range of moths seen will depend on the date, nearby habitats and weather conditions. The date and venue of this event changes each year in order to see a different selection of moths.

Anyone is welcome to join us, but for further details of the start time, where to park and to book your place, please make contact.

A Naturalist's Reminiscence No.8

In my previous reminiscence I reminded you that I had just arrived in Calcutta without a word of Gurkhali en route to be a recruiting officer in Nepal.

In Calcutta I had been allocated temporary accommodation in a ground floor flat where, when I arrived, I found the bearer (house servant) busily swatting a lot of poisonous snakes which had fallen down through a hole in the ceiling. I then reported to GurMov (Gurkha Movement Control) which was a system of offices around the world responsible for posting military personnel. When I mentioned Dharan, the new training camp in Nepal I was informed that work on it had not yet begun. I was then instructed to go to Sealdah Station, the equivalent of Euston for those travelling north.

GurMov had allocated a whole carriage to me without an explanation and instructed me to keep all the doors locked when I was in it. I soon found out why. I had put my camp bed in the centre of the carriage and installed my mosquito net over it. On the first night we had stopped at some remote station when I was woken by seeing a large pole with a hook on it coming through the window and attempting to remove my mosquito net. I struck the hand with my boot and then went to sleep. At another station there was a rattle on one of the doors and a loud shout "I am a 1st Class passenger, let me in." Looking out of the window I saw about 20 so called 1st Class passengers trying to climb in. I kept quiet and the train finally reached Jogbani on the Nepalese frontier which was about 200 miles from Calcutta. There fortunately, I met a British Sapper Officer (Engineer) who informed me that I would have to walk 50 miles to Phusri where a temporary camp had been set up. So, I hired a bearer to carry my kit. En route we heard gibbon (monkeys) calling from the jungle, saw deer and even a leopard. After an awful experience in Calcutta (not recounted here), I felt I had arrived in paradise.

HAMBLEDEN

Musicians are back at Hambleden Church Teas – Dates for your diary

Teas in the churchyard of St. Mary The Virgin Church in the centre of Hambleden have started again for 2024, and again this year on some Sunday afternoons we will have live music.

Sunday 21st July - Frieth School Choir will return to delight us by singing at Teas. Aged 5 to 11, they were a joy to see and listen to last year and everyone is thrilled they are returning again this July.

Sunday 28th July and Sunday 11th August - the extremely talented Violinists, Adrian Shaw and his son Matthew have agreed to return and play for us. Last year Adrian and Matthew played some wonderful music that Adrian had composed, along with other well-known pieces, so it'll be interesting to see what they play this year.

A perfect way to spend a Sunday afternoon, and no matter what the weather decides to do Teas on these dates will still happen, they will just take place inside the church instead of in the Churchyard. Teas start at 2pm, and finish at 5pm.

So do come along to Hambleden Churchyard, support the musicians, have tea and cake, relax and listen to some music - it is great fun!

FRIETH

Frieth School

It's been a great few weeks at Frieth with many of the classes taking their learning outside the school and enjoying field trips linking to the topics they are studying. It's so important to take education beyond the classroom and make learning memorable and it looks like they've had a fantastic time...

Hughenden Manor

The wet weather couldn't dampen Eagles' spirits as they explored Hughenden Manor. They discovered some beautiful walks, a secret WWII map-making bunker and learnt about the home of Victorian PM Benjamin Disraeli.

Roald Dahl Museum

Kestrels ventured out to the Roald Dahl Museum for an action-packed day of creative collaboration. They found out about how illustrators and authors work together to create stories before having a go at their own character creation and also learnt about where Roald Dahl took his inspiration from.

Parmoor Park Farm

Kites had a fantastic trip to Parmoor Park Farm, supplementing their topic on Land Use. Bella talked about the different crops they grow; they saw where the huge mountains of grain are stored; realised how enormous a combine harvester is up close and met a baby calf that was just hours old! The children loved every minute and we are so lucky that Bella gave up her time to share her knowledge and love of farming.

Forest School at Hill Tree Cottage

Buzzards had an amazing time joining Ms. Clio and Ms. Catherine at Forest School. They roasted marshmallows on the fire, used mallets (very carefully) to create wonderful flower/leaf prints and went on an excellent treasure hunt.

Kites' class also had a cracking Forest School Day at Miss Clio's stunning setting. The children loved exploring the woods, butterfly hunting, trying out tools, potato printing, Hapa Zome (transferring the imprint of plants onto fabric by bashing), cooking in the mud kitchen, swinging in the hammock and last but not least... roasting marshmallows over the fire!

Lady Ryder Memorial Garden

There is so much to see and do at Lady Ryder Memorial Garden! Half of Kites' class had such a great time. We are extremely grateful to Robert and Shuna for providing this learning opportunity.
